

Contents

Preface p. 9

Part One Sounds and Symbols p. 11

Sound; musical notation; rhythm; ornaments; tempo; dynamics; tones and semitones; scales; tonality; intervals

Part Two Harmony and Counterpoint p. 59

Melody; harmony; chords and their progressions; cadences; consonance and dissonance; 'exotic' chords; modulation; figured bass; counterpoint; canon; fugue

Part Three Musical Forms p. 95

Motive; phrase; sentence; binary form; ternary form; forms based on dances: suite; variations; rondo; the sonata; sonata form; sonata rondo; symphony; concerto; overture; vocal forms; programme music

Part Four Instruments and Voices p. 119

The human voice; stringed instruments; plucked instruments; hammered string instruments; equal temperament; wood-wind instruments; reed instruments; transposing instruments; brass instruments; percussion instruments; orchestral plan

Part Five Scores and Score-reading p. 151

The score; score-reading and playing; aural imagination; musical memory; horizontal and vertical approaches

Appendix One: Figuration p. 164

Appendix Two: Tonic Sol-Fa p. 164

Appendix Three: Foreign Names of the Instruments p. 166

Index of Signs p. 167

General Index p. 169